

CGA580 Connector

with right angle swivel

Manual operation

WP 320 Bar

Long life connector made of high tensile brass alloy.

Designed to attach to the end of filling hoses for filling side entry industrial and medical gases.

Integrated right angle swivel allows the hose to rotate around its longitudinal axis resulting in much less bending of the hoses while under pressure leading to longer life of the hose and safer filling operations